

President's Message

Dear EWI members:

As the last of the turkey is cleared away, we move into the holiday rush: Gray Thursday, Black Friday, Small Business Saturday, Cyber Monday!

I hope you all had a lovely Thanksgiving. My own was a bit less than traditional this year: no turkey, no seated dinner; I was/am still in the throes of moving, hence the delay with which this letter comes to you. Yet the meaning of Thanksgiving was never more pronounced for me than it was this year in the kindness of friends and neighbors: meal deliveries, phone calls to check on the progress, and frequent queries of "OK, I'm here. What can I do to help?" Each and every gesture made me realize how blessed I am to have such a wonderful support network. Is there anything more giving than helping someone move?! It's the simple things in life than mean so much: a phone call, a thoughtful gesture, the giving of one's time. In addition to family and neighbors, there is the support of our extended EWI family.

I wish each of you a happy beginning of the holiday season and look forward to seeing you at our very special December meeting!

Warmest regards,

Susan

ATTA GIRL NEWS

Our own Allyson Turner has accepted the position of Corporate Literacy Committee vice chair! Kudos for Allyson who has always been a strong proponent of reading rallies and literacy initiatives. How nice for our chapter that we have an increasing presence as we move toward LCAM.

She is also helping Rosemary during her convalescence by sending out the chapter newsletter.

How's that for team spirit? Atta girl, Allyson! -Susan I. Wranik
